

Unidentified photo from Howard Walker Family album

2002 CCHGA Officers
R. D. Huffines, President
Gerald Hemmer, Vice President
Mitzie Curtis, Secretary
Betty Cannon, Treasurer

New Members

- Phillip A. Duke
- Lourene E. Vaden
- David & Dreama Davidson
- Margie A. Roberts
- Margie M. Grove
- Thelma Hooper Lovell
- Alma D. Morris
- Eldridge "Jim" Murphy

Monthly Meetings

Call the CCHGA Office at 792-3623 for information concerning chapter meetings

Coming next month in the August publication of CCHGA BYTES:

- The Neptune Ferry
- Betty Gleaves Diary continued
- Ashland City Guards continued
- Cheatham County Schools continued
- Felix Street: Slave Narrative
- Please send in a Member Spotlight!

For reference questions, email
Tennessee State Library & Archives at reference@state.tn.us

Want to contribute to CCHGA Bytes?
Send an email to:
Jim Allen – allenjm@bellsouth.net
Greg Poole – greg.poole@state.tn.us
Lisa Tinch – ltinch@bellsouth.net

JUNE 2002 MINUTES

The Cheatham County Historical and Genealogical Association met on June 27th, 2002 at the home of David and Mitzie Curtis, 2702 River Road, Ashland City, Tennessee. The following 19 members and guest were present: Mitzie Curtis, David Curtis, Brenda Curtis, Gerald Curtis, Betty Cannon, Don Curtis, Betty McCool, Lisa Tinch, Earl Nixon, June Nixon, Max (Earl & June Nixon's grandson), Ben E. Jordan, Barbara Heggie, James M. Allen, R. D. Huffines, Clayton McCool, Evelyn Tinsley, Dreama McCool Davidson, and Jim Davis. President R.D. Huffines called the meeting to order at 7:07pm.

Mitzie Curtis read the May minutes. Motion by James Allen to accept minutes as read, seconded by Brenda Curtis and carried by vote.

Betty Cannon read treasury report.

President R. D. Huffines noted that the Neptune Community has enough money to purchase the Neptune Historical Marker.

The Allen County Public Library of Fort Wayne Indiana; which is the second largest Historical Association in the country has requested all back issues of the CCHGA newsletters for their collection. Along with a membership to continue receiving the newsletter in the future. The Allen County Public Library has offered to pay all copy fees, shipping and any other charges associated with this request. Discussion by membership to suggest that they apply for a life time membership to guarantee that the newsletter will continue to be received by The Allen County Public Library. A motion was made by Mitzie Curtis to complete their request, seconded by James Allen and carried by vote.

David Curtis presented this month's program on medal detecting and Civil War relics. Dave demonstrated several different types of bullets, buckles, breastplates and miscellaneous items for the guest. Each member and guest received a Civil War bullet at the meeting.

Two new members; Dreama McCool Davidson and David Davidson joined CCHGA and PALS during the meeting.

A motion to adjourn the June 27th, 2002 meeting at 8:22 was made by Brenda Curtis, seconded by Barbara Heggie and carried by vote.

9:00 p. m.
Nashville, TN
November 22, 1917

Miss Isabell Eatherly
Ashland City

My Dear Isabell –

Five years ago today we wrote these letters we are now answering. You was in the best of spirits and I was the happiest girl on the earth. We was side by side in the dear old Bethlehem School. Enjoying school days to their greatest. Now you are away teaching and I'm away off here in Nashville working every day and among all kind and classes of girls and boys. But today Isabell I feel that I am not as mean after being among all classes as I was five years ago "for Mischief I am talking about". You ask me how I was. I am in fine health and in the past five years there has been days I have worked when I would care but little had I not lived them through. Have had the small pox, was the only contagious disease I have had. You ask about my happiness (5 yrs) prior to when the letter was written. I was that day the happiest of girls. Now I cannot say that. The things that made me happy then are no longer happiness to me and I told you that day I loved one boy better than I did anyone and if I could say the same today. I love him still, but dear Isabell the things has changed since that date. He's still my own dear sweetheart and is dearer and nearer to me today than then, We've had one falling out & quit, but made up again just about one year now. Was just sore at each other 4 wks. I have not neglected my church duty of going and there is where he found me and come home with me and we made up. Thee of the joyful events:

- 1) Was when I was going with Brent Darden and working at Skalowski's Restaurant for 10 months of the last year of 2 yrs I worked there.
- 2) Was when I had a happy home in the Dick flats and Walter was coming to see me and all the girls was in the country would come and spend the days & nights with me And was going to the protracted meetings we used to have at dear old Bethlehem Church.
- 3) Was when I promised J. W. M. – Oh I'll tell you this one in person. Don't let no one see this one.

The saddest in these five years:

- 1) When I had to leave my happy home and go out in the world alone to seek my living and to be tempted by satan's mean people and to bear the burdens that many people puts on me.
- 2) The one saddest was when I followed behind my dear old grandma to her grave, but knowing she's in peace. That has been almost one year ago.
- 3) Was one when J. W. Maxey got rambling in his head and cared little for me and went away 9 months and I went home to the big meeting and did not enjoy nothing. Now I am not as happy as you may thing. My worrying no one only me and God knows I work hard now Isabell and sometimes I long to be out where I could be in a free old field to get caught up with my thinking and crying.

And also know many boys have I loved. There has been (3) three that I loved. One dear one the same old stand by and Brent. You never saw the third one.

I never attended any other school only Bethlehem and Miss Clara I loved her – she has married since then. Part of the most happiest days was spent in the Dick house by me. Walter may have helped me, shared my _____ then, but now no one helps me share my worrying or sadness and Isabell I know you are far sadder today than you was five years ago. For the one you loved then and now is far away in this awful war just as my one has gone and the other will go soon. I shall not forget that worsted dress for it was pretty if it was mine and the club of hair is till upon my head and not much larger than was then. I can picture in my own study how we looked playing ball that was real happiness. We were the two oldest in the game and the only single ones out of the seven you named. All of them have married and some have a baby and some are going to. I wander if tonight if any of the girls even thinks about he school days. Yes the chill you had was remembered. I have not forgotten the day when we wrote these letters, it's as fresh in my memory almost as twas then and Isabell tonight finds me well and living. I'm thankful to the Lord and as you are well and living I shall not recall to mind one unkind thought or deed you've done me for I don't think there has been any passed or done. Isabell when I got home tonight, I sat down and began to write a letter to Joe Gower in the army. I just thought out it being the 22nd and jumped up and it seemed that I couldn't find your letter soon enough. It has been on my mind several days and many many times I have wished to see it. But as I read over it the tears blinded my eyes so I could not see just to think of the many things that five yrs can make such a change. Now Isabell I think I have answered the questions you have asked now and the ones I left out I shall tell you about when you come. I received your card. We are at the same place and I sure want you to come after Thanksgiving and Isabell save this old letter you have written me 5 yrs ago for I want to keep it. Now you come we have got all kinds of room for you and I really want you to come. Now honey don't let no one see this letter for it might cause excitement of something I've said and save the old letter and send me the one I wrote. Come now after Thanksgiving and will compare the old letters together and the flower in yours, save if for I want to see it.

Schools in Cheatham County

(We begin a series of short articles on Cheatham County schools. We would appreciate any articles, histories or memories concerning your local schools. ed.)

Report of Cheatham County schools in 1878. "The system is growing in population greater than at any time since the war, but the terms are only 3 1/2 months in duration. Some districts consolidated with private schools and this lengthens their terms to 5 1/2 months. The schools are mostly taught in churches. 12 Districts, all but one.

945 white male students
842 white female students
280 black male students
234 black female students
23 white male teachers
7 white female teachers
5 colored male teachers
5 colored female teachers
30 white schools
10 colored schools

T.J. Adkisson, Superintendent, Kingston Springs

Senate Journal of the 41st Tennessee General Assembly (Nashville: Nashville American Press, 1879), pg. 30-31.

Ashland City Black - 1939. In 1939, there were 39 students and one teacher named Faynella J. Trice.

Salem School: Cheatham County's Oldest School?

Salem School was located on Moseley Ferry Road, or the Thomasville Road. It is considered one of the first schools in Cheatham County, possibly starting around 1856. The Rev, Sterling Brewer was among the first teachers. Later, in 1906, the school moved down the hill nearer the creek on land of John Thomas and Sarah Gupton Nicholson. They had sold 8 acres of land for $45 near the ford of Half Pone Creek to the school commissioners of the 6th Civil District of Cheatham County for the benefit of public schools. The commissioners were George W. Weakley, J.T. Fielder and John J. Gupton. Early teachers included Kate Swiney, Nora Felts, Estelle Frazier, Mrs. Bobby Gossett, Louise Hunt Shearron, and Elizabeth Jarrell. Some of the early students were Vera Hutchison, Ree Nicholson, Willie Poole, Everett Nicholson, Pearl Stewart, Rayburn Perry, E. Hollis and Charlie Batts.

Due to lack of students, the school was discontinued in 1924 and the building dismantled. The building material was then used to build Hinton School which was located about 1/2 mile from the railroad at the end of Moseley Ferry Road (now Hinton Road). Hinton School was built on land donated by Emmett Blanton. After about 10 years this school was consolidated with Bethel School. Some of the teachers at Hinton School were Louise Hunt Shearron, Effie Mae Fielder, Louise Bowling, Frances Nicholson, Annie Mae Hunter, Anna Clifton, Doris Major, Pauline Nicholson, Sara Duke, Ruth Nicholson, Bessie McCormack, Effie Gupton and Ila Hagedwood. One of the teachers at the Hinton School remembered the building as being very rough and dilapidated.

Bethel School

Bethel School, located on Moseley Ferry Road, was formed in the 1870s by several dedicated men who saw the need for a school in the area. It was first called "Stump Toe," because of the difficulty in walking over the inadequately cleared land. A few familiar names from this area were Pace, Weakley, Clifton, Walton and Chambliss. A Mr. Chambliss taught here in 1884. By 1906, it had become a two-teacher school. Among the teachers were three Williams' sisters: Mrs. Cora Nicholson, Mrs. Nannie Bridgewater and Mrs. Martha Hunter. This school closed in April 1967 when West Cheatham school was built. To be continued.

Cheatham County Schools and Teachers in 1940

Cheatham County's 31 elementary and two high schools opened for the 1940-1941 term. County Superintendent James E. Gibbs said that the preliminary reports reaching his office indicate an increase in total enrollment. The enrollment at Central High School was the same as last year, 258. The Cheatham County teachers assigned as follows:

Ashland City:	Martha Adkisson, Ada Duke, Claudie Gibbs, Bess Harper, Eva Harris, Nannie Harris, Pearl Smith, Bess Jordan.
Bearwallow:	Homer Blankenship, Willie Kate Harris.
Beech Grove:	Fannie Lou Barfield.
Bethel:	William Glasgow, Tennie Pearl Hewitt.
Bethlehem:	Arnold Harris.
Cedar Hill:	Louise Murphy.
Cheap Hill:	V.W. Nicholson, Ruth Sublett.
Cochran:	Lillian Hunt.
Dog Creek:	Marjorie Barker.
Greenbrier:	Edna Gibbs.
Hinton:	Bessie McCormack.
Idlewild:	Pauline Baker, Anne Dozier.
Kingston Springs:	Mrs. C.E. Anderson, Jewell Finch, Mary Cummins, Ruth Rust, Carrie Street.
Lockertsville:	Ruth King.
Lillimay:	Lois Barker.
Marrowbone:	Effie Mae Fielder, Rose Johnson.
Mt. Pleasant:	Thelma Williams.
Mt. Zion:	Gladys Jackson, Christine Harris.
Neptune:	Granville Pack, Mildred Clifton.
New Hope:	Harwell Hagedwood, Anna Clifton.
Pegram:	Clifford Devault, Helen Robinson.
Pinnacle:	Jesse Carney, Evelyn Bradley, Elizabeth Bradley.
Pinson:	Christine Pardue.
Pleasant View:	T. Roy Hicks, Louise Hunt, Charles Hallums, Ila Hagedwood, Morine Bradley.
Pond Creek:	Robbie Allen.
Poplar Ridge:	Lena Hewitt, Mary Margaret Read.
Sam's Creek:	Nellie Hutton.
St. Amanda:	Sallie Hale.
Sweet Home:	Pauline Nicholson.
Thomasville:	Fred Gupton.
Triangle:	Evelyn Carney.
Central High:	J.A. Barksdale, Principal; D.F. Adkisson, Charles G. Pitner, J.P. Glover Jr.; Frances Carmon, Cecil Elliott, Mrs. Josephine Duke, Mrs. Pinkie Christian, Mrs. Annie Heathman, Frances Nicholson.
Kingston Springs High:	Clifton Hagedwood.

From Cheatham County Annual Report, 1940-1941, Tennessee Department of Education Records, Tennessee State Library and Archives.

JULY CCHGA MEETING TO BE HELD AT CHEATHAM COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY ON JULY 25, 2002 IN THE COMMUNITY ROOM AT 7:00 PM!!!!

The Ashland City Guards

(A few issues ago, I began a series of abstracts of the service records of Company E, 18th Tennessee Volunteer Infantry also known as the "Ashland City Guards" Unfortunately, I abruptly stopped even though I promised to continue in the next issue. I apologize for that error, and will "pick up" where I left off in last September's issue. Editor.)

- Binkley, H.W. Private; 16 years old; enlisted August 7, 1861 at Camp Trousdale; discharged November 6, 1862.
- Bright, Robert B. Private; 26 years old; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Camp Cheatham; discharged December 11, 1861.
- Brown, S.A. Private; place of birth: Madison County, Tennessee; complexion: light; hair: light; eyes: blue; height: 6 ft.; deserted at Chattanooga, August 23, 1863; captured and sent to Military Prison, Louisville, Kentucky; took oath of allegiance, September 24, 1863.
- Bryan, J.N. Private; 25 years old; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Camp Cheatham; "sent home on sick furlough"; re-enlisted August 7, 1861 at Camp Trousdale; killed in action at Stones River on January 2, 1863.
- Cain, Andrew Nelson Private; 22 years old; enlisted June 27, 1861; "absent at home on sick furlough," re-enlisted August 7, 1861 at Camp Trousdale; captured at Fort Donelson on February 16, 1862; sent to military prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; exchanged to Vicksburg, Mississippi, September 23, 1862; deserted from Murfreesboro, November 10, 1862.
- Cain, Henry W. Corporal/sergeant; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Cedar Hill; captured at Fort Donelson on February 16, 1862; sent to military prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; exchanged to Vicksburg, Mississippi, September 23, 1862; wounded in battle at Chickamauga and sent to hospital; wounded on the Chattahoochie River, July 5, 1864 and sent to hospital; served until end of war.
- Carney, Elijah Wilson Private; 23 years old; place of residence: Cheatham County; complexion: fair; hair: dark; eyes: dark; height: 5 feet, 8 inches; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Cedar Hill; captured at Fort Donelson, February 16, 1862; sent to prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; exchanged to Vicksburg, Mississippi, September 23, 1862; captured at Orangeburg, South Carolina, February 12, 1865; sent to prison at Hart's Island, New York; took oath of allegiance and released June 14, 1865.
- Carney, W.W. Private; enlisted November 23, 1862 at Murfreesboro, Tennessee; reported sick in hospital; died of appendicitis in hospital near Atlanta on May 3, 1864.
- Carney, William Private; place of residence: Cheatham County; complexion: dark; hair: dark; eyes: hazel; height: 5 feet, 5 inches; enlisted October 21, 1861 at Murfreesboro; captured at Fort Donelson on February 16, 1862; sent to prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; exchanged to Vicksburg; captured near Atlanta on July 30, 1864.
- Clark, E.J. Private; enlisted December 3, 1862 at Murfreesboro; "disgracefully deserted his company, September 8, 1863; deserted near Chattanooga; took oath of allegiance, September 17, 1863; released at Nashville.
- Cothran, John R. Private; enlisted August 7, 1861 at Camp Trousdale; captured at Fort Donelson, February 16, 1862; received severe thigh wound; name appears on list of wounded on board USA Steamer, Chancellor in charge of Dr. Wardner, 12th Illinois Regiment; sent to Simon's General Hospital, Mound City, Illinois, February 22, 1862.
- Craddock, Ed Private; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Cedar Hill; "in guard house under charge of desertion."
- Craddock, L.L. Private; 22 years old; enlisted August 7, 1861 at Camp Trousdale; no further information given.
- Demumbra, J.W. Private; 21 years old; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Cedar Hill; captured at Fort Donelson, February 16, 1862; sent to prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; exchanged to Vicksburg, Mississippi, September 23, 1862; reported on list as a patient in General Hospital, Thomasville, North Carolina; paroled in North Carolina, May 18, 1865; transported to Ashland City, Tennessee.
- Demumbra, Spencer Private; 17 years old; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Cedar Hill; captured at Fort Donelson, February 16, 1862; sent to prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; killed at battle of Resaca, Georgia, May 15, 1864.
- Demumbrian, Samuel . Private; 18 years old; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Cedar Hill; captured at Fort Donelson, February 16, 1862; sent to military prison at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois; exchanged at Vicksburg, Mississippi, September 23, 1862; wounded at battle of Stones' River, wounded in arm and left in hospital; sent to military prison in Louisville, Jan. 5, 1863; transferred to military prison at Fort McHenry, Baltimore, Maryland, May 10, 1863; in hospital, Episcopal Church Hospital, Williamsburg, Virginia, May 14, 1863; killed in battle of Chickamauga, September 19, 1863.
- Douglass, James Private; enlisted May 29, 1861 at Camp Cheatham; died July 19, 1861.
- Dozier, Henry H. Private; 17 years old; born in Davidson County; occupation: teamster; complexion dark; eyes dark; hair dark; enlisted November 25, 1862 at Murfreesboro; absent in hospital by order of surgeon of the 18th Tennessee, injury of spine received in August, 1862 at Russellville, Kentucky by being ran over by horses in a retreat causing partial paralysis; discharged August 1, 1863.
- Dozier, J.J. Private; enlisted June 2, 1863 at Beech Grove, Tennessee; left the command September 11, 1863, deserted near Lafayette, Georgia; took oath of allegiance at Nashville, Tennessee.

To be continued

Josephine McMahan along with her sister, Nancy Duke Murphy, compiled and have donated to CCHGA a copy of The Links of Our Family & Connected Kin. Thanks for a job well done!

Eighty-Four Year Old Cheatham Man Debunks Those Good Old Days

Already stretching the span of life allotted by Israel's Psalmist 14 years, John B. Patton, retired farmer and tobacconist, quietly observed his 84th birthday at his home in Ashland City, Sunday. Mrs. Patton, born Georgia Ann Felts, observed her 78th birthday, February 3. They have been married 62 years. Both are in reasonably good health.

Mr. Patton was born February 25, 1856, near what is now the Davidson County line on Highway No. 12. His family moved to the Bethlehem community in 1863, where Mr. Patton remained until he moved to Ashland City in 1903.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton have the following children: Mrs. Sam Binkley, Bethlehem community; Mrs. J.W. Nicholson and Miss Mary Patton of Ashland City; Walter Patton of Hickory Point; J.H. Patton of Springfield; J.P. Patton of Indiana; Mrs. R.M. McWhirter and Jerome Patton of Nashville. Emily Patton died in 1938. A son, Roy Baxter Patton died in infancy. Mr. and Mrs. Patton are members of the Freewill Baptist church, he having been a member for 72 years.

"Are people generally having as hard a time today (1940) as you had when you were a boy?," Mr. Patton was asked. "Why, man, they don't know anything about hard times today. My father was in the Confederate Army. We never saw him after he left home. He was wounded and taken prisoner at Fort Donelson, and afterwards died in a Northern prison camp. We were told that he was given a decent burial. That left my mother on a few acres of ground with six children. The oldest was 15; the youngest 5. A little sister died not long after my father was carried wounded from Fort Donelson.

"My mother took in washing, and did work that had formerly been done by slaves. At first she had a few hogs and a cow. The retreating soldiers killed and ate all these. She had two horses, but a soldier took one of them, leaving behind a sick substitute, which had to be killed. For breakfast we had a few pieces of cornbread with a little gravy on it, when we could get something to make grace with. If mother was home at dinner time, which she seldom was, we had parched corn. For supper we had parched corn. When spring came, we had sullet. Nothing ever tasted so good. What coffee we had was generally made of either sweet potatoes or parched corn. I don't know what we would have done without corn.

"One day an older friend invited me to go home with him to dinner. That sounded good. For dinner my friend had boiled green chestnuts. We went barefoot until Christmas. We had no matches. I never saw a match until years after the Civil War. In 1865, I worked 12 months for $24 dollars. My oldest brother worked hard for seven months for a cow. How the women worked. They worked every night until 12 o'clock, carding and spinning after having worked all day. Salt? We went to the smokehouse, shoveled the dirt where meat and boiled the dirt until it became a sort of brine. And all the winters were bitter then. We pulled a two horse wagon loaded with furniture across the Cumberland River here in 1863.

"And they had no Red Cross in those days. No help for the poor widows. No institutions for the blind. No homes for old people. No public charities. The churches helped as much as they could, but they were very poor." Clarksville Leaf Chronicle, Feb. 26, 1946.

(John B. Patton died February 19, 1949 and was buried in Forest Hills Cemetery in Ashland City. ed.)

Speaking of debunking the "good ole days" - at the August 22, 2002 CCHGA monthly meeting, the guest speaker will be Karen Glenn and her children (pictured at left with husband Mark Glenn). The Glenn family from Pleasant View were recently seen on the television PBS special Frontier House. The show can be seen again on Nashville Public Television starting August 10. Karen will discuss life on the 1880's frontier as well as talk about what went on behind the camera which you didn't see on television!

A Cheatham County Civil War Veteran - John Harrington

"Resident of Pleasant View, Cheatham County; born in Robertson County, now Cheatham on June 10, 1845; member Company E, 18th Tennessee; wounded in the knee at Bentonville, North Carolina; surrendered at High Point, North Carolina, April 7, 1865; did not take oath; married; wife aged 55 years; 3 daughters living; cooper; no real or personal estate."

From Confederate Pension Applications, Tennessee State Library and Archives, No. 7569, filed October 23, 1905, accepted.

The Demumbreun Family: Two Early Records

"The eldest of the children of Timothy and Elizabeth (Durard) Demumbreun was John Baptise Demumbreun, who was born on January 24, 1788. As early as 1824, he began to buy land on Marrowbone Creek in what is now Cheatham County, and in a few years he owned an extensive tract, extending beyond the confluence of Little and Big Marrowbone Creeks. This juncture of creeks was included in a parcel of 386 acres which on April 1, 1839 he bought of Dennis Dozier. His own residence which a few years ago was destroyed by fire, was situated on a commanding eminence some 200 yards southeast of the juncture of the 2 creeks. Here he died in 1872 and probably buried in the family graveyard on the side of the ridge to the right of the house."

Cate, Wirt A. "Timothy Demonbreun," Tennessee Historical Quarterly, 16 (September 1957), pg. 224-225.

To Governor Andrew Johnson;

Governor: We have no Coroner in this county and cannot have a legal postmortem examination when a fellow creature found dead, which must be our excuse for this irregular report.

Yesterday, the 21st instant, as we were informed and believe, a squad of Federal soldiers commanded by Captain or Lieutenant Barn, First Tennessee Cavalry or mounted infantry, arrested a man, a citizen of this county by the name of William B. Demumbrine at the house of Mr. A.H. Williams on Sycamore Creek and when they conveyed him about a quarter of a mile therefrom, he was killed by a shot from a gun or pistol which took effect in the left eyebrow. As this occurrence has created great alarm in the neighborhood, we earnestly hope that you will cause the matter to be investigated. The corpse was shrouded, confined and delivered to that father of the deceased by the citizens today. All of which is respectfully submitted. D.W. Nye, D.A. Wilkins, C. Vedder and A.B. Carlin.

From Andrew Johnson Papers, Tennessee State Library and Archives, 1864

YARD SALE
Saturday, July 27th
7 a.m. – 4 p.m.
2702 River Road

Community Yard Sale to Benefit

The Pond Creek, LillaMay and Sams Creek (PALS)
Chapter of the Cheatham County Historical and Genealogical Association

Collection Center for items will be set up at 2702 River
Road. Yard sale items and donations accepted.

Call Dave Curtis @ 792-2761 for information.

CHEATHAM COUNTY HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL ASSOCIATION
P O Box 703
Ashland City, TN 37015

Individual $15.00/year Family $25.00/year

Lifetime $100.00 80+ Free

Donation Amount _____

NAME: include wife's surname before marriage if applicable. _____

YOUR BIRTHDATE: _____ SPOUSE BIRTHDATE _____

ADDRESS: _____ STATE _____ ZIP CODE _____

PHONE: HOME _____ BUSINESS _____ E-MAIL ADDRESS _____

SPECIFIC CHAPTER DESIRED:

Ashland City Kingston Springs Pleasant View
 Pond Creek & Lillamay/SamsCreek (PALS) At Large Member

Make checks payable to CCHGA

Comments: _____

Cheatham County Historical and Genealogical Association
P. O. Box 703
Ashland City, TN 37015